We call particular attention to a new feature of the ADDRESS BOOK—the “ADVERTISING GUIDE.” This we believe will prove of great convenience, as we can recommend the houses represented as the best in Buffalo, and shopping lists can be made up from it without hesitation as to the standing of the advertisers. Telephone numbers are given in the Index to Advertisements.

PLAIN ENOUGH!

No cutting or fitting for any window. Strongest and best spring, perfect adjustment, works beautifully, both ends brass finished. Clasps and not tacks are used in attaching shades. (See cut.)

CONVENIENT • DURABLE

BE WISE . . . Insist upon having your shades mounted on the "Keystone Adjustable." Costs no more than "old style." Examine at dealers, or send to us for catalogue.

ADVERTISEMENT.

That the BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK has become one of the necessities of life in Buffalo is more apparent with every successive issue. We continue to receive testimony from many people, who use it either in a business or social way, as to its indispensable value as a convenience and a time saver. Advertisers have shown their appreciation of its value as a medium not only by increasing their space, but in a number of cases by unsolicited application for space before the book was planned. It has advantages over most mediums in having a life of two years, and being in constant use during that time by the best people. The book is of a convenient size for the library table, and is much better than the best of the old-fashioned, laboriously-kept address books of individuals. A simple check mark can make it answer that purpose, and can easily be changed without writing. To those who have occasion to send out invitations, announcements or circulars, the book is invaluable. We believe the street lists are as perfect as our friends, who have continued to encourage us with their advertising and subscriptions, have a right to expect. We realize that it is only by keeping the standard of the book as high as possible that we can hope to continue its success.

PREFACE.

One of the best witnesses of the steady growth of Buffalo is the file of the BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK, which commenced in 1882. The first issue was a little book, but every volume since has been larger than its predecessor, until it has reached its present goodly proportions. This has been done not by enlarging its scope, but simply by the addition of the new residence streets as they have been built up. This, the seventh issue, shows a much larger growth in this part of the city than any former period of two years. The streets have all been carefully canvassed and the information written out, so far as possible, by the householders themselves, so we believe it to be as accurate as is possible to be obtained.

As there has been, of necessity in a compilation of this character, some time between the commencement of the canvass and its finish, some errors may be found in the street list and index, but most of these have been noted in the list of corrections and omissions. The long list of clubs and societies shows how this life thrives in Buffalo. It is very difficult to make such a list complete, but we believe all the principal organizations are included. We should be pleased to receive any information which will help us to improve this or any other part of the book in the next issue. The list of the "Personnel of the Press" is correct to date—September, 1894. The etiquette notes have also been revised, and will continue to be at least suggestive to our readers.

THE PROBLEM OF SCRAP PHOTOGRAPHS

Is a difficult one for amateur photographers and travelers. Many good pictures are laid away out of sight because of its not being solved. We have a line of SCRAP BOOKS made with heavy board on which the scraps can be mounted. It has been found much more satisfactory, however—if a little more expensive—to mount the pictures before binding, keeping them in press while drying. We can do this for you, or if you have the time and patience necessary to do your own mounting, we can furnish you with a satisfactory material. In this way the exact size and number of sheets can be taken and portfolios made or binding suitable selected. We can show you different styles and guarantee you the best of work.

THE CITY BANK

WOMEN'S ACCOUNTS

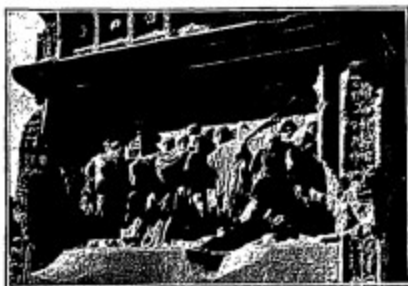

THE CITY BANK makes a special feature of its accommodations for the banking business of women, and has a suite of rooms especially set apart for this purpose, consisting of a business room on the main floor, with separate entrance on Main Street, a reading room down stairs, and a writing room in the observatory in front of the Bank one flight up.

WOMEN desiring to have checks cashed or money changed, when down town, will be waited upon WHETHER THEY HAVE AN ACCOUNT WITH THE BANK OR NOT. If it is desired to write a letter or wait for a friend, these rooms will be found exceedingly convenient, situated as they are in the centre of the shopping district.

THE view from the observatory or writing room is a very beautiful one, showing the incessant tide of travel up and down Main, and from Erie, Church and Niagara Streets, towards this centre of the business district of Buffalo.

THE CITY BANK

FOREIGN TRAVEL DEPARTMENT

"ARCH OF TITUS."

THE CITY BANK supplies its customers with every facility for undertaking foreign tours. It has a FOREIGN TRAVELLERS' ROOM adjoining the Business Exchange Room in the centre of the Bank. This apartment is a cozy, charming room, ornamented with photographs, and provided with convenient desks and shelves.

Here everything that the intending traveller may care to refer to is gathered together. The literature of the various Steamship Lines, in convenient cases, enable him to study their different merits, and pick out his STEAMER. A BOOK OF SAILINGS gives the date of departure and return for weeks ahead of every Steamer on all the great Lines of Ocean Traffic. In a convenient compartment below the desks, DIAGRAMS OF EVERY STEAMER, showing berth and deck arrangements, make it possible for him even to select his State Room. On the shelves above are GUIDE BOOKS for all parts of the World. At the side in a portfolio will be found ROUTE MAPS OF EUROPE. With these books and maps the trip may be studied out and the minutest details entered into. Overhead hangs a BULLETIN BOARD which records the daily arrivals of the principal Steamers, both in New York, London, Liverpool, Southampton, Havre, Bremen, etc. This list is kept promptly up to date, and is of use to persons who are watching for the whereabouts of friends en route.

In the matter of ARRANGEMENTS FOR MONEY, every modern convenience is offered by LETTERS OF CREDIT, DRAFTS AND CHEQUES, Express Money Orders, BANK OF ENGLAND NOTES, and ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN GOLD AND SILVER, etc., etc. The Bank has on hand for immediate delivery a practically unlimited amount of the Letters of Credit of BROWN BROS. & Co., signed in blank, which may be filled out at a moment's notice, and which are AVAILABLE IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD. Thus the traveller may get his letter at THE CITY BANK as late as the afternoon before sailing. LETTERS OF INTRODUCTION AND PASSPORTS are furnished, and the usual interest allowed on deposits left as security for credits.

The C. M. Clapp Co.

FINE SHOES.

A LUXURIOUS shopping trip is a journey to The C. M. Clapp Co.'s magnificent shoe store. Once there, no crowding down narrow aisles, no long waiting on wooden benches, no uncertainties or difficulties about getting the shoe you want or having it perfectly fitted.

ON the contrary, the store is a great cool, splendidly furnished place with luxurious divans and sofas, with a large force of attentive salesmen, and the largest stock of fine and fashionable foot-wear in the country.

A QUESTION often asked is, "Why did The C. M. Clapp Co. bring to Buffalo a store built on metropolitan lines"? For an answer we point to the result. Buffalo and Western New York had long needed a first-class shoe store. They appreciate it now that it is here, and The C. M. Clapp Co. enjoy the biggest trade of any shoe firm in this part of the country. They believed in Buffalo and their faith was pinned on the right town.

THE firm makes a specialty of ultra fashionable styles in wedding shoes, evening shoes, fine kids, stylish tan shoes, high or low, for men, women and children.

THEIR dress shoes, patent leathers, etc., are the handsomest made. No fashionable costume is complete without them; while their ordinary shoes have such a reputation for durability and excellence that they have been adopted by many of the institutions of the city.

THE store is in the center of Main Street's busiest block, No. 388. Telephone No., Seneca 593.

CAN SUPPLY THEMSELVES WITH TEXT-BOOKS OR ANY INFORMATION CONCERNING THEM AT OUR STORE.

IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS THE TEXT-BOOKS ARE FREE,
 BUT MANY CONSIDER THAT THIS IS A POOR WAY TO SAVE MONEY, AS NO ONE CAN GET AS MUCH GOOD OUT OF A BORROWED BOOK, AND OLD SCHOOL BOOKS ARE TREAS-URED BY THE PUPILS IN AFTER YEARS.

Leave your silverware in MARINE BANK VAULTS.

TABLE APPOINTMENTS

MANY a dinner table has been made or marred by the table appointments—in china, in silver, in glass. The fastidious housekeeper will devote almost more attention to these equipments and to the service than to the food itself. And now-a-days artistic designs may be had at so low a price as to make it inexcusable to forego them.

Our prices on such goods are very low. People hardly realize how low until they go to other cities; or how large our stock. Our system, continued through so many years, of selling everything at a small profit, and only of a thoroughly reliable quality, explains, we think, our comparative freedom from competition here.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the properties of the function $f(x)$ defined by the equation for $x \in \mathbb{R}$. It is shown that $f(x)$ is an odd function and that $f(x) \in C^1(\mathbb{R})$. Moreover, it is proved that $f(x)$ is a strictly increasing function and that $f(x) \in C^2(\mathbb{R})$. Finally, it is shown that $f(x)$ is a concave function.

$$f(x) = \int_0^x \frac{1}{1+t^2} dt$$

BREAKFASTS.

The formal breakfast, formerly not greatly favored by Buffalo hostesses, has gained in popularity during the past season.

The hour usually chosen is noon.

Invitations may be verbal, or in note form, and need not be sent out more than a day or two in advance.

The beauty of a breakfast is its freshness and simplicity. The table is simply trimmed and the meal is noticeably lighter than luncheon.

Fruit, omelette, chops, game, a salad, dessert and coffee, are usually on the bill-of-fare.

Pretty street gowns, with bonnets, are worn by the women; and morning coats are suitable for the men.

An after call is expected.

LUNCHEONS.

These midday feasts are decidedly popular with Buffalo hostesses, and may be as elaborate as the purse and taste dictate.

All valuable papers safely stored in MARINE BANK VAULTS

The invitations for a ladies' luncheon are the same as for a dinner, and are usually sent out a fortnight before. They are engraved or written in this form:

MRS. BROWN
requests the pleasure of
MRS. SMITH'S company at luncheon, on Tuesday, July the first,
at one o'clock.

1000 Michigan Avenue.

Luncheons can be made a very showy meal, with fine linen, beautiful china, silver and glass, and a profusion of flowers. Fashion sensibly discourages elaborate favors, and a great variety of wines. Bonbons, candied fruits, olives and relishes are in order.

The menu closely resembles a dinner menu, but soup is omitted, with boullion or clam juice to take its place.

Frequently the luncheon is served at small tables. When that is done, a novel and pleasant variation from the conventional entertainment may be made by the "progressive" luncheon.

At the progressive luncheon, four people are seated at each table. The tables and the place cards are numbered as for progressive euchre. At the end of each course the two people having even numbers proceed to the next table, carrying their napkins and water goblets with them. Thus a delightful general intercourse is effected.

The standing luncheon is in high favor in Buffalo. It is similar to a tea, except that the menu is more elaborate and the hours are earlier. The invitations usually read "from one until three o'clock."

Bonnets are worn at formal luncheons, and the gloves are removed at the table.

TEAS.

The American tea is virtually an afternoon reception, and it but little resembles the simple English affair in which it originated.

Put valuables not in daily use in MARINE BANK VAULTS.

The English tea is an afternoon set aside by a hostess for receiving a number of calls. The invitations are sent on visiting cards, with the day and "tea at four o'clock," or "tea at five o'clock," written in one corner. They are sent but a few days in advance.

Tea, coffee, or chocolate, and wafers or small cakes, are served from a small table, and are passed either by a white-capped maid, or by one or two girl friends of the hostess.

As attendance at a tea is in itself a call, no after call is expected. Women go to teas in handsome street attire. A visiting card sent to the house during the tea hour takes the place of regrets. There is a growing tendency toward sending these cards by mail, but it is far more courteous to dispatch them by messenger, or to have a friend who is going leave them with her own.

High tea takes the place of dinner on Sunday evenings in the cities, and consists of a delicious bill-of-fare served from a long table.

A "chocolate" is similar to a tea, except that chocolate is served, and chocolate ice cream, bonbons, and cakes are affected.

AT HOMES.

Formal receptions are given either in the afternoon or evening.

The hours usually set in the afternoon are from three to six. Sometimes when an exceedingly large number of invitations are issued, the hostess writes "from three until five" on half the number, and "from four until six" on the remainder.

For evening receptions the invitations are generally engraved, and the hours are from eight until eleven. Occasionally hostesses combine afternoon and evening receptions by having the hours from five until ten.

The hostess wears a handsome reception toilet, and receives her guests at the drawing-room door. She is assisted by a group of unbonneted matrons and maidens in evening dress.

Salads, croquettes, rolled bread, chocolate, ices and cakes, are served at small tables, or to the guests standing. The rooms and the tables are decked with flowers, and music adds its charms. The custom is spreading to have a small table, on which stands a tea urn or a punch bowl, placed in one of the rooms at a distance from the dining room.

MARINE BANK VAULTS afford perfect protection from fire.

The women wear handsome gowns and dress bonnets. Occasionally the men are bidden in the afternoon as well as in the evening, but they don dress suits only after six o'clock.

The reception must be followed by a call.

DINNERS.

Dinner invitations should be sent out a week or more in advance, and may be engraved in the third person, as :

MR. AND MRS. DEFOREST JONES

request the pleasure of

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN GRAY'S

presence at dinner

on Thursday, July first, at seven o'clock.

The reply should be sent immediately, couched in as formal terms. For a little dinner, the hostess might write :

DEAR MRS. GRAY:—Will you and Mr. Gray dine with us on Thursday at seven, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Blank?

Ever yours truly,

MARY JONES.

Everybody should go to a dinner intending to be agreeable.

A prompt arrival is rigidly required.

Ladies dress for a large dinner in low neck and short sleeves and jewels. Men are always in evening dress.

The host goes in to dinner with the lady for whom the dinner is given. The hostess comes last with the most important man.

The menu is usually long and tempting, but the best dinners are not always the most elaborate.

An after call follows.

MARINE BANK. Incorporated in 1850.

EVENING PARTIES.

Musicales, card parties, receptions and dances while the evening hours away during the social season.

Invitations for parties and balls are engraved and sent out two weeks or ten days in advance. The following is the formula:

MRS. CHARLES GARDINER
requests the pleasure of your presence
Wednesday evening, June first, at half-past nine.

Dancing.

991 Franklin Street.

Frequently invitations to rather informal dances are sent on visiting cards, the date, the hours, and the word "dancing" being written in one corner. If there is a guest of honor, his or her card is enclosed.

A number of Buffalo houses have ball rooms, but usually the lower floors are "crashed" for the reception and dancing, while supper is served in an upper story, or in a tent on the lawn.

Cooling drinks are dispensed throughout the evening, and supper is served at eleven by a caterer.

Gentlemen should be presented to the young dancing set through the chaperons.

An orchestra plays the round dances, but the old fashion of occasionally introducing square dances for the benefit of the staid elderly set is reappearing.

The cotillion never loses its popularity with the young; and with its bewildering complications and gay maneuvers, the German forms a brilliant ending to a dance.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The thimble party has become regularly incorporated into Buffalo's list of social affairs. The invitations for it are sent either by note or on visiting cards, with the word "thimble" written in one corner. The hours may be any time during the afternoon between two and six. The women bring bits of needlework with them, and the time is spent in sewing and chatting. Toward the close of the afternoon, light refreshments are served.

In Buffalo, where the veranda is the summer parlor of almost every home, veranda parties are frequent during the summer. Easy chairs, hammocks, potted plants, rugs, and a small table from which lemonade or iced tea and small cakes are served, combine to make the veranda a delightful place to entertain a company of friends.

The "coffee" is a form of entertainment borrowed from the Germans, and the original "Kaffeeeklatsch" resembles the English tea, except that coffee is served to callers. Recently the "coffee" has been made a form of semi-formal evening entertainment. The guests come and go without much formality, and coffee, with such other refreshments as the taste of the hostess dictates, is dispensed.

WEDDINGS.

The most elegant invitations are engraved in solid form, on fine paper, something after this fashion:

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM WILLIAMS request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter HELEN to MR. JAMES JOHN JONES, at the Church of the Redeemer,
Wednesday, June first, at six o'clock.

The at-home days may follow or be engraved on a separate card. The after reception card is also separate.

If a wedding be a small one, after cards are sent to the friends not invited.

The home wedding can be made a lovely affair with the altar and canopy of flowers, the music of a string orchestra, piano or harp, and the presence of the family and near friends.

MARINE BANK Storage Vaults for bulky articles.

The church wedding is formal and dignified, but can be made a thing of beauty if rightly managed. The organ plays softly while the guests assemble, the favored ones invited to the reception being shown to the front seats. At the chosen hour, the organ sounds the wedding march, the clergyman, groom and best man take their place at the altar and await the bridal procession. The ushers lead, followed by the bridesmaids in pretty gowns in harmonizing colors. Child bridesmaids are much in favor. Then comes the maid of honor, usually in white, and next, the bride on her father's arm. It is proper for the bride to be ungloved, and many brides prefer carrying a prayer-book to a hand-bouquet. Jewels, unless they be the groom's gift, are not worn.

This arrangement is subject to all sorts of changes, and the prettiest weddings are where originality and good taste have worked together.

At the reception the bride and groom receive, assisted by the bride's parents. The bride leads the way to the tables, and the bridal party have a table, usually set in white.

The presents are usually shown, but without cards.

Calls from all the guests upon the family of the bride are expected within ten days, but this formality is often overlooked.

CALLS.

Many Buffalo women set aside a certain day each week, each fortnight, or each month, in which to receive calls. When such is the case, only an intimate acquaintance warrants a call on any day but the one chosen.

The fashionable hours for paying visits in Buffalo are from three to five-thirty.

Women usually make a round of visits before the holidays, before Lent, and at the close of the spring season.

On leaving the city for some time, a visiting card with "P. P. C." written in one corner, answers for a call.

On calling upon a lady for the first time, or upon business, the card is sent up. On other occasions the name is usually sent up and the visitor leaves her cards on the tray. The fashion of flooding a house with cards for every lady in the family has gone out. One card suffices, unless it is at a tea for which the hostess has enclosed a friend's card. In that case, cards are left for both.

Readily and privately accessible. MARINE BANK VAULTS

The husband's card accompanies that of his wife on all formal occasions.

Brides usually set days for calls, and these days usually take the form of informal receptions.

Party calls are expected within two weeks, and if one neglects them, he must expect to see a long, black mark against his name in the social calendar.

LETTER-WRITING.

Women of good taste usually prefer heavy, unruled cream paper.

The present style calls for square paper and oblong envelopes.

In a friendly letter, the address appears at the top. The date is written out in full at the bottom.

A married woman should never prefix Mrs. to her signature. She signs her name Mary Walters. If it be a business letter, or a letter to a stranger, she may enclose her full title in a parenthesis after her signature.

An unmarried woman may write (Miss) before her signature in a business letter.

THE LITTLE THINGS OF LIFE.

At a four-o'clock or reception, on entering leave your card with the servant in the hall.

In sending invitations it is good style to address the envelope, Walter Walters, Esq.

The eldest daughter is Miss Walters on her cards. The other daughters have their full names engraved.

An invitation to a formal dinner is usually delivered by private hand. Wedding invitations are often delivered from the carriage.

R. S. V. P. is no longer deemed necessary. Polite people need no urging to reply to their invitations.

Mrs. Sherwood says: "Be a gentleman, but talk about a man."
